SALES NOTES FOR DEALERS:

'One of the greatest British songwriters of recent years is back in town...'
Dave Thompson / Goldmine

What is it all about?

- Martin Gordon's first three critically-acclaimed solo CDs in one package
- Mid-price release (24.50 euros plus p&p)
- Strictly limited to 500 copies
- Each (numbered) copy is signed by the artist
- Available only online via Voiceprint, artist website with Paypal and e-tailers
- Each CD comes in original artwork and packaging and fits snugly into a full-colour slipcase
- As ever, it's pop music for grown-ups
- Includes cover of tunes by Marc Bolan/T Rex, the Move, the Beatles, Gilbert & Sullivan, the Rolling Stones, Paul McCartney and Mel Brooks' 'Love Power'
- Package includes new slipcase notes and short commentary from the artist

Why should I buy this?

- You have more money than sense
- You have equal amounts of money and sense, but quite a lot of each

RADIANT FUTURE RECORDS

- You have more sense than money but can borrow a small sum from your grandmother
- You can't remember where your original copies are, or you have donated them to Bob Geldof in order to reduce African debt and Make History Poverty
- You simply cannot wait until Part V of the Trilogy is released
- You want to
- You are worried that Martin Gordon will declare a fatwah on you if you don't

BIOGRAPHY

Bassist & composer. Former member of 'Kimono My House' era Sparks, then formed 'first supergroup of glam' Jet, who became Radio Stars. Later worked with all and sundry – Rolling Stones, Kylie Minogue, Sezen Aksu and the Tiger Lillies to name a few. Waited until 2003 to embark on solo career as he 'didn't want to flood the market' (short version).
