

RADIANT FUTURE RECORDS

More music for grown-ups. And iDiots.

Newsletter Vol. 3 / May 2008

Jet

After cock-ups by our marvellous but un-named distributor who takes care of deliveries to Amazon, Jet's 'More Light Than Shade' CD is once more available. And a tiny number of copies of the Japanese version of the deleted 'Jet' CD have appeared, complete with Japanese insert card (what the hell are they called, those things?). Interested (and wealthy) parties should email Radiant Future direct.

Mammals

After a pause for other activities, Part V of the Mammal Trilogy is properly underway. The tunes are written, and drummer/engineer Martin Seelig is replacing Chris Townson on drums, following Chris' rather selfish decision to just die and thus throw the entire operation into confusion. Chris' interview about his days with the Who was excerpted on iJamming.

Martin Gordon live

But only once, and that's only in Berlin for one night, and it will only be a couple of tunes anyway. He will be accompanied by Colin Bass on bass, aptly enough. Perhaps an mp3 of the English introducing MG's mammalian music hall to the Germans may be forthcoming.

God

A final few copies of God's Companion Guide to God's On His Lunchbreak (Please Call Back) are at your disposal. Details here. It is a book, innit, so literacy is required in order to extract full added value from this indispensable lifestyle accessory.
